

River Cruise down the Danube (October 14-23, 2023): Perry and Nancy Morrison will lead this trip. There is no more famous river in Europe than the Danube, and we are going to cruise it in 5-star style! We will begin our journey in Munich with a day to recover from our flight and explore the city. The next day we will travel to Passau to board the 5-star MS Amadeus Imperial, a brand-new vessel launched for the first time in 2020. Our ports of call will include Linz, Melk, Vienna, Bratislava and Budapest. If you've never been to musical Salzburg, Austria, there is an opportunity for an optional full-day trip for only $ 154. The available three-day pre-trip extension will be in Prague ($ 899), a magical place and one of my favorite locations in all of Europe. These Amadeus cruises chartered by Adelman are magnificent and may be best value for the money in the travel industry. Think of it as a floating 5-star hotel with your chef-prepared meals "on the house." Regional wines are included with all meals (3 per day). For information, please e-mail travel@barton.edu . Pricing begins at only $ 4149 if booked by 12-31-22. In today's environment, this is an incredible bargain. We already have ten people signed up early for this trip, and we can sell cabins until the boat sells out.
