

MATH READINESS TEST INSTRUCTIONS

The Math Readiness Test [MRT] is offered through Canvas, Barton College's Learning Management System. Students can access Canvas by utilizing OneLogin. The course will appear Math Readiness I or Math Readiness II on a student's Canvas dashboard.

When attempting to start the MRT, students will be prompted to download Lockdown Browser, a secure browser required to complete the assessment. Students should follow the download instructions, open lockdown browser, and log back into Canvas. Students will then be able to complete the MRT. Students are permitted two attempts, and the highest score will be utilized in determining appropriate math placement.
